Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-14 and 20-21, drawn to a method of treating a condition related to resistance to cell death comprising administering an effective amount of a cupredoxin or a variant or derivative thereof, classified in class 514, subclass 2.
- II. Claims 15-19, drawn to a method of treating a condition related to resistance to cell death comprising administering an effective amount of a cytochrome C₅₅₁ or a variant or derivative thereof, classified in class 514, subclass 2.

Inventions are distinct each from the other because of the following reasons:

Invention I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). Invention I and II are unrelated because each invention require different treatment materials and have different modes of operation. Invention I is method for treating a condition related to cell death comprising administering a cupredoxin to a patient, while invention II is a method of treating same condition comprising administering a cytochromeC₅₅₁. Because two methods use different material to treat patients the methods would have different mode of operation.

Searching the inventions of group I and II together would impose a serious search burden.

Searching the methods of treating a patient with cupredoxin is used only to determine the patentability of Group I. Searching the methods of treating a patient with Cytochrome C₅₅₁ is used only to determine the patentability Group II.

Both methods have acquired separate status in the art and the search required for each group is not required for the other group because each group requires a different non-patent literature search due to each group comprising different products and/or method steps, Therefore, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election of Species

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- a. A cupredoxin listed in claim 3 or 19.
- b. A condition listed in claim 17 or 20.

In the event that applicant elects invention I or II, applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from a) and a single disclosed species from b) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See M.P.E.P. 804.01.
